Assignors Report: Linda Rosbert stated that officials need to register with the NJSIAA if they haven't done so already and that Zebra will be the platform the chapter will be using.

Ed McGowan, who replaced Bart Cranston as the indoor assigner, reported that there are 15 South Jersey indoor meets this season – 13 at The Bubble in Toms River – and two at the Ocean Breeze Complex in Staten Island. Those working at Ocean Breeze will need to show proof of vaccination.

New Business: Kathy Hunter discussed attendance requirements with officials, and the importance of checking in with the meet referee before leaving to go home from an assignment, especially after a meet resumes due to inclement weather.

Those who haven't done so already, need to take the concussion course in order to work the indoor season. If the course was taken last spring, or for another sport, that is acceptable. Concussion course completion certificates should be sent to Fran Harwell.

Training Session: None.

Adjournment by president at 8:17 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Bill Kile III
