Assignor's Report: Linda Rosbert reported that those officials who would like to work Cross Country need to register with NJSIAA in the summer to be on the list. Cross Country is a second sport and fee. Sign up only if you are going to officiate XC. Indoor and spring is combined. Sectionals are June 3 & 4. See Carl Rickerhauser and Ed Colona.

1st Vice President's Comments: Concussion courses by all officials must be redone this summer. Go to NHFS to find the concussion course. Concussion certificates should be completed July 1- Sept. 15. Certificates should be emailed to Kathy Hunter at kholdmorr@gmail.com.

2nd Vice President's Comments: None

President's Comments: President Kathy Hunter turned over the gavel to the incoming President Fran Harwell. Fran asked members to submit comments and recommendations on what they would like to see the chapter participate in, continue or change.

Training Activities and Q & A:

How do you properly disqualify someone from a team or a race? Raise the yellow flag. Notify a red hat. Referee must call and notify the team. It was discussed that a walkie talkie system may be needed to improve the communication with the Referee and being able to get them report sooner.

Announcements:

Ed Colona & Carl Rickerhauser have been honored by the State.
Ed McGowen was named Official of the Year.
Ed Colona will receive the Lifetime Achievement Award.

Adjournment by president at 8:19pm .

Respectfully Submitted,
Fran Harwell
Acting Secretary/1st VP
